WARNED!

THE LAWYER—
Q.—How many times a day do you lift the typewriter carriage to see what you are doing?
A.—I don't know.
Q.—How many times?
A.—No more than that.
Q.—More than that, I think.
A.—Two hundred times.
Q.—About that I should think.
Q.—How much does the carriage weigh?
A.—I don't know.
Q.—At least that.
A.—And you say you lift it about 200 times every day?
A.—Yes.
Q.—Then that would average for 200 working days about $20,000 pounds? Is that right?
A.—(A long sigh) I suppose so.
Q.—Why don't you get an Underwood typewriter with visible writing, no carriage to lift, no swinging the platen, work in full light? All evident advantages over the old way, as you can see.

Business Was Brisk

Legislators Cease Talking and Succeed in Clearing the Order Paper.

Redistribution Bill Read a First Time, Second Reading Monday.

Ministers Subjected to a Volley of Questions on Various Subjects.

Legislative Chamber, March 20, 1902.

Mr. Speaker took the chair at 2:15 p. m.

Rev. W. Leslie Clay offered prayer.

Mr. Curtis, rising to a question of privilege, took exception to an editorial in the Colonist of March 20, from which he read an extract, as follows:

"We do not say that Mr. Curtis does not believe those charges, because no one has ever been able to discover, from his actions or his words, what Mr. Curtis in his inmost heart, does, or does not believe. But we do say, and we say it emphatically, that these charges were not introduced by Mr. Curtis because he believed them to be true, but from a sinister motive, and with an ulterior purpose. The truth of that assertion is abundantly contained in the method of his actions. He knew full well that the members of the House were against him to a man. He knew that they would take the first open opportunity of repudiating his action in formulating and presenting such charges. He knew that the government had but to ask the House to crush him and his charges together, and that the House would do so, not with the normal sentiment majority, but by an overwhelming vote. He was careful, therefore, to bring in his motion for a committee in such a form that it could not be accepted; and his purpose was to insinuate before the country that the government feared investigation, because the ordinary forms of parliamentary procedure prevented the investigation from being granted in the form he demanded. If the form was amended, he was ready then to say that the government had insisted upon a tribunal which its members knew beforehand would whitewash their proceedings. There is his trick, his serpentine policy, as plain as daylight in an white paper can make it. Imagine his surprise, consternation and chagrin when the members of the government demanded an investigation, and that before the highest tribunal in the country."

He strongly objected to the language of the article, and he declared he would not stand such criticism.

He also objected to a portion of the report of the proceedings in the Colonist, in which the following passage was reported to have occurred:

"Mr. Curtis appealed to the Speaker. Mr. Speaker called upon Hon. Mr. Eberts to withdraw the words vile and cowardly."

"Hon. Mr. Eberts—When he made those base and cowardly charges he lied," Mr. Curtis—Order."

"Hon. Mr. Eberts—Would he to the ruling of the chair, but he declared he could not find words strong enough to express his indignation of the conduct of Mr. Curtis, who had struggled with the truth when he made the charges."

"Hon. Mr. Eberts—He would not say that Mr. Curtis was a liar, as that was unpardonable, but he would use an expression made use of by Lord Salisbury in the Imperial parliament the other day, and say that Mr. Curtis' charges were a tissue of falsehoods."

"He declared the foregoing to be incorrect."

Mr. Curtis then took up the question of the Royal commission, insisting that the members of the House should be sole arbiters of the facts brought out in evidence.

Mr. Gilmour pointed out that the honorable gentleman was out of order.

Mr. Martin also objected to the matter being discussed as a question of privilege.

Mr. Curtis allowed the subject to drop, but intimated that he would bring it up again in another way.

REDISTRIBUTION.

The Redistribution bill, the full text of which, in referred to a committee of the whole House, reported, and read a first time. Second reading fixed for Monday next.

A bill to amend the Constitution Act was also read a first time. The amendment is rendered necessary by the redistribution act which provides for the election of 42 members.

NORTH VICTORIA.

Mr. McBride asked what action, if any, had been taken with regard to the election in North Victoria?

The Honorable the Premier, replied that no action had been taken.

FIRST READING.

An act to amend the Steam Boilers' Inspection Act was introduced by Hon. Mr. Wells, and read a first time.

INFORMATION WANTED.

Mr. McBride asked if the government would have a large map prepared showing the new electoral divisions created by the Redistribution Bill?

Hon. Mr. Eberts said his object in delaying the consideration of the bill till Monday was that he might have such a map or maps prepared for the convenience of members.

MOTIONS.

Mr. Helmeke moved for copies of the instructions given to Mr. Greenshields, K. C., the accredited agent of the province of Ontario, in connection with (a) the contract for the construction of British Columbia of the Canadian Northern; (b) in connection with obtaining the signature of the responsible parties to the contract for its construction.

Hon. Mr. Wells said the government had a decided objection to bringing down these papers. He thought the explanations given yesterday should be sufficient. He might say that certain modifications of the contract were under consideration, and a conference was arranged between the government and representatives of the Canadian Northern. He hoped the honorable member would withdraw his resolution.

Mr. McBride warmly supported the resolution. He again brought up the Todd-McQuade-Munroe letter, and insisted that the House had a right to see the papers submitted to those gentlemen.

Hon. Mr. Wells said the government could not show a contract which had not come into their possession. If the gentlemen had been shown a contract it was shown by some person outside of the government.

John Dillon Is Suspended

Result of Hot Retort in the Imperial House of Commons.

Mr. Chamberlain Scores Him About Traitors and He Gets Angry.

London, March 20.—One of the liveliest scenes witnessed in the House of Commons since the palmist days of the Irish Nationalists, ended this afternoon with the suspension of John Dillon. During the discussion of Southern Africa affairs, the Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, vigorously protested against the government's conduct in uttering "malignant slanders" in calling the Liberals "pro-boers."

The Colonial Secretary, Mr. Chamberlain, in the course of an equally incisive reply, said he desired deliberately to accuse Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman of losing no opportunity for slandering his countrymen, the soldiers and the government. Consequently the "malignant slanders" had come from the opposition side.

The Speaker, Sir William Court Gully, here intervened and declared that the term "malignant slanders" was unparliamentary.

Both Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Mr. Chamberlain thereupon withdrew the words amid cheers.

Mr. Chamberlain, proceeding, referred to the Boers who are fighting on the British side, when John Dillon, Irish Nationalist, interrupted: "They are traitors," on which Mr. Chamberlain retorted, "The honorable gentleman is a good judge of traitors."

A scene of great confusion ensued. When order was partially restored Mr. Dillon demanded a ruling on Mr. Chamberlain's words.

The Speaker said: "An honorable member spoke of soldiers serving under the British flag as traitors. I deprecated the interruption and I deprecated the retort of the other member."

Mr. Dillon then said: "I will tell the right honorable member that he is a damned liar."

A dead silence followed this remark. Such unparliamentary language seemed to stun the House.

The Speaker invited Mr. Dillon to withdraw the remark, but the latter said: "I will not withdraw."

"Then I must name you," said the Speaker.

The government leader, Mr. A. J. Balfour, then said: "I beg to say that Mr. Dillon be suspended from service in the House."

The motion was carried by 248 to 48 votes.

Mr. Dillon immediately, by direction of the Speaker, left the House, amidst wild Nationalist cheers, and Mr. Chamberlain resumed his speech.

Mr. Dillon's suspension under the present rules cannot exceed a week. His offence would have been much more severely dealt with had the new rules been in force.

The ejection of Mr. Dillon did not serve to clear the atmosphere, and the chairman of the debate was filled with personal allusions and unpleasant exchanges, the nature of which would have excited comment had they not been discounted by the first explosion.

David Lloyd George, Welsh Nationalist, bitterly attacked the government, drawing a harrowing picture of the conditions in South Africa and charged the War office with pigeonholing important information.

Sir Charles Gaze, Conservative, interrupted Mr. Lloyd George, saying that the speaker was pandering to the pro-boers, whereupon Mr. Lloyd George characterized the interruption as "An insolent remark."

This caused confusion in the House and cries of "Withdraw."

John Redmond, leader of the Irish party in the House of Commons, appealed to the chair, and Sir Charles reluctantly withdrew his statement.

W. R. Plummer, Conservative, and Mr. John Redmond then had an altercation, and after that disorder, Mr. Lloyd George succeeded in finishing, with the remark that he did not know who was responsible for all the errors and incompetence in South Africa, but that the men who had profited by these conditions now sat upon the government benches.

Mr. Brodick, the secretary of state for war, answered Mr. Lloyd George with a long defense of the War office.

During the discussion in the House of Commons, Mr. Brodick and Mr. Chamberlain showed themselves to be very helpful over the position of affairs in South Africa.

Mr. Chamberlain estimated there were still 2,000 Boers in the field.

The government has again telegraphed Australia inviting that commonwealth to send 2,000 more men to South Africa.

STODDART IS AGAIN ARRESTED

Young Man From Victoria In the Hands of Montreal Police.

Montreal, March 20.—A young man named Stoddart, hailing from Victoria, B. C., was arrested here today charged with obtaining goods under false pretences. He called on a local house and produced an order purporting to be signed by his father, for $200 worth of goods. These were delivered and the young man at once proceeded to pawn them.

Meantime the firm became uneasy, investigated, and the young man's arrest followed. The case will probably be settled.

HANGS TODAY.

Lacroix Will Die For the Murder of His Wife.

Ottawa, Ont., March 20.—Stanislaus Lacroix will be executed at Hull tomorrow morning for the murder of his wife, Delphine, the hangman, got into a fight with some people this morning and was pretty roughly handled, being knocked down and kicked in the face.

MAJOR CAMPBELL DEAD.

Well Known Montrealer Found With Bullet Hole in Head.

Montreal, March 20.—(Special.)—Stewart Campbell, a well known marine insurance broker, was found dead this morning at his residence, Crescent street, with a revolver tightly clutched in his right hand and a wound in his head. There was a napkin on his bureau with stains on it, as if he had been cleaning the weapon. It is supposed the shooting was accidental, as he was in good spirits and had no financial worries. He was for many years, in the Prince of Wales (Rifles) and retired in 1887 with the rank of Major. He was 48 years of age, and unmarried.

NOT JUST YET.

Nova Scotia Does Not Wish to Experiment With Prohibition.

Halifax, March 20.—(Special.)—Prohibition is not likely to come before the legislature of Nova Scotia this session. Several days ago a large delegation of temperance people waited upon the provincial government and asked for the introduction of prohibition laws. The government made no definite reply to the delegation, nor have they yet made public their policy on this question. It is understood, however, that the government will not undertake the responsibility of passing a prohibitory law at this time, and this decision will probably be conveyed to the prohibition convention.

Nova Scotia has now a license law, and will wait until the experiment in Ontario and Manitoba has been fairly tried.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS.

CHINESE OFFICIALS.

Charges Against Consul-General Ho Yow and Minister Wu.

San Francisco, March 20.—Grave charges against Chinese Consul-General Ho Yow, designed also to inculpate Minister Wu Ting Fang, all under the seal of the Six Companies, are on file in the foreign office in Peking, says the Chronicle this morning. When interviewed in regard to the matter Ho Yow said: "Yes, the minister has been informed by the foreign office that charges are on file and has telegraphed me to investigate and learn their sources. There are a number of charges, the greatest stress being laid on the allegation that I am not conducting the duties assigned to me as aggressively as the complainants think I should. Another charge is that I am neglecting my official duties and not protecting the interests of my countrymen. The charges are forwarded to the foreign office. I am informed that the charges bear the imprint of the Six Companies. I informed the companies and they at once entered a disclaimer and that disclaimer will be forwarded to the minister and him to the foreign office. I am informed that the signatures and imprint of the companies are foreign. It is quite possible that the charges emanated from disgruntled highlanders, incensed at the effort to stop their practices."

TUG MERMAID AGAIN AFLOAT

Now Lying in Nanaimo Harbor For Repairs—Protection Mines.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Nanaimo, March 20.—The Mermaid, belonging to the New Vancouver Coal company, was brought to the wharf this afternoon. Stronger pumps had been placed on her, which, with the repairs made beneath her boiler, enabled her to be towed to her place at the wharf where repairs will be made.

Work has been completed connecting the workings of Protection Island shaft and No. 1, so as to enable miners to be taken to and from No. 1 to the Protection Island workings. It is expected that work will be commenced tomorrow. Men will be taken over by motor launch, which will do away with a boat being employed at the change of shifts. Work has been going on with this object in view for some time.

The local Trades and Labor Council endorse the recommendations of the Chinese commission which have been reported to the House at Ottawa, and have ordered 10,000 copies of a circular letter setting forth their views on the subject to be printed. These will be forwarded to Trades and Labor councils in the Dominion urging them to take some action in making themselves felt in the matter.

CECIL RHODES.

Reports From South Africa Continue Good.

Capetown, March 20.—Cecil Rhodes passed a better night. He slept more than for some time past, consequently there is a distinct improvement in his condition today.

Cecil Rhodes had a good sleep this afternoon. His physicians have promised that, if possible, he will sail for England next week. Dr. Jameson does not consider this to be impossible.

VANCOUVER DRILL HALL.

New Building Opened With a Military at Home.

Vancover, March 20.—(Special.)—The Drill hall was formerly opened last night by an at home given by the Duke of Connaught's Own. Lieut.-Col. Worsnop delivered the opening address, and fully warranted good evening to the present. The Boys Brigade, with the assistance of Judge Henderson, Miss Wood, Mr. H. Grant, and the military band, gave a varied and very interesting programme.

NORTHWEST LEGISLATURE.

Lieutenant-Governor Forget Delivers Speech From the Throne.

Regina, N. W. T., March 20.—The Northwest legislative assembly opened today. In the Speech from the Throne, Lieut.-Governor Forget said: "The time at which you meet is one characterized by great and unexampled prosperity in all sections of the country. New settlements, with bright prospects, are looming up in every direction, and the succession of excellent crops experienced during recent years tends to encourage the continuation of the immigration movement so noticeable at present."

After referring to the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, the Lieutenant-Governor proceeded: "Owing to the representations made to the government through the Department of Agriculture, the evils of the grain blockade existing a few weeks ago have been considerably mitigated. As a result the farmers are now in receipt of an increase of price, amounting to at least 10 per cent. over prices formerly obtaining. During the recess my government has been in communication with the federal government upon the matters set forth in your memorial to His Excellency-in-Council of the second day of May, 1900, and as a result a conference was held with a sub-committee of the Privy Council upon the subject. In addition to verbal representations made, a statement in writing was submitted on behalf of my government. This statement, together with the reply of the federal government, which I regret to say has not yet been received, will be communicated to you at the earliest possible moment, and you will be asked to take action with respect to the important questions dealt with therein."

"Owing to the great increase of population in the Territories, provision will have to be made for increased representation in the legislature and a measure dealing with that subject will be submitted to you."

DEPRESSED AND DISCOURAGED.

It is remarkable how thoroughly the whole system is thrown out of order when the nerves become weak and exhausted. All energy and ambition disappear, the mind wanders, memory fails and despondency reigns supreme. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food puts new vim and energy into the brain, nerves and body, builds up the system and prevents paralysis, prostration and insanity.

AN INTERESTING EVENT.

The most interesting event of the theatrical year will be the appearance at the Victoria theatre on March 20 of Mr. Charles B. Hanford, in a grand revival of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew." The James B. Decher company, who are directing the tour, promise a complete production, with exceptional cast, including (Miss Helen Grant), a famous English beauty; Marie Drofnah, Emma Hayner, William J. Shen, Irving Knight, A. Sannary, and Paul Anderson. R. Anderson, L. W. Brown and John C. Davis.

Amur Returns From the North

Report (that Stampede to Old Pelly Was a False Report.

Card Who Was Shot By Takum Johnnie Not Expected to Live.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Vancouver, March 20.—Steamer Amur arrived tonight from Skagway, being delayed two days by a snow storm on the trip up.

The stampede to Old Pelly was caused by a fake strike story. The stampedeers are returning.

D. G. Quadra is in port. Her mission here at the present time is to survey the Second narrows.

Rev. Dr. McLaren has returned from a business meeting of the Presbyterian Board of Missions at Toronto. He stated that liberal grants have been made for the purpose of mission work in British Columbia.

Card, the man wounded by Takum Johnnie, is not expected to live. A complication has set in, the return of an infection of the brain to which the patient is subject, and he is very low this evening.

Provincial Constable Jones arrived from the North on the steamer Cassiar this morning. He has a knothole of the suspected murderer of Hussey. The Indian woman talked freely. She claims that the white men supplied the Indians very often with liquor, and that Card and Hussey, who were partners in the logging business, quarrelled a great deal. She claims that Johnnie (the husband) did not beat her that day, and she heard no shots. She accounts for Hussey's absence by saying that Card was responsible for it. Officer Jones, however, believes that he has the man responsible for Hussey's disappearance safe in jail in the person of Johnnie. No further trace of Hussey has been found. On Wednesday, before the tragedy, Johnnie fired at two other white men—Johnston and Gallagher.

PREPARED FOR SATURDAY MATCH

Hockey Team In Good Shape to Play Vancouver—Basketball Games.

The Victoria Hockey club held their last practice at Oak Bay yesterday afternoon, and showed that their recent training has been very beneficial. After the practice the committee met and chose the following team to represent them tomorrow: Goal, K. Jaegers; backs, A. Maclean and K. Gillespie; half backs, T. P. Patton, T. B. Tye and J. Hart; forwards, F. A. Fletcher, C. Newcombe, K. Schofield (captain), M. J. Rogers and A. Gillespie. This is the same team that defeated the Vancouver aggregation at Brockton Point in Vancouver some two weeks back, with one exception. Maclean takes C. Maclean's place in goal, and will there have a chance to show the Vancouver forwards how hard it is to put the ball through the posts. Victoria has the game now to win the season's championship, as the most difficult game for their team—that on the foreign ground—was won by them on the 8th inst., so with a fairly strong team and their own ground, the chances are certainly in their favor. No word has yet been received as to the personnel of the Vancouver team, but it is safe to expect the following old-time players amongst their ranks: Maclean, McKinnon, Maclean, Beecher, Innes, Shalleross and Boulton, and it is needless to say that with these players in their ranks it will be no "snap" for the home team. All the local men are in good form, so a fast game should result. The Oak Bay park is now in as good condition as it ever was, and the grand stand has ample accommodation for all-comers. The executive committee have decided that all soldiers and sailors in uniform shall be admitted free. The tramway company will attend to the prompt conveyance of all, both to and from the grounds. The home team will play in red and white costumes, while black and white will denote the visitors. As there are no counter attractions, a good crowd should be on hand to support the teams. Mr. J. H. Austin has kindly consented to referee the game for Victoria.

BASKETBALL.

Intermediate Match Between the J. B. A. A. and Fernwoods Tonight.

A great game of basketball is expected this evening, when the Bays and Fernwoods meet in the J. B. A. A. gymnasium in an intermediate league basketball match. By defeating the Victoria West, and Boys' Brigade teams, the Fernwoods have secured a lead, which they will endeavor to increase. The Bays have materially strengthened their team, and are determined to give the Fernwoods a hard tussle. The teams are as follows: J. B. A. A.—Guards, N. Gowen, K. Hughes; centre, R. Power; forwards, J. Lawson, F. Bone. Fernwoods—Guards, Thrall, Noot; centre, R. Peden; forwards, Hancocck, Briggs; spare men, Gallon and Knight.

SENIOR MATCH.

A battle royal will be witnessed when the J. B. A. A. and Fernwood basketball teams meet at the Drill hall on Saturday evening. The Bays, dissatisfied with their position at the foot of the league, are making all possible preparations in order to recover their lost laurels, and they will play the game of their lives on Saturday. Meantime, the Fernwoods have not been idle, and as both the game should be fast.

The teams are as follows: J. B. A. A.—Guards, W. Stephen (captain), and B. Pettigill; centre, R. Janion; forwards, F. White and H. Wilson. Fernwoods—Guards, W. Peden, A. Shortall; centre, C. Fairall; forwards, W. Fairall, R. Dalby.

SPORT NOTES.

The Victoria Hunt club will meet tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. under the Burns monument, in Beacon Hill park.

"Forget Me Not."—Fow plays of late times are as strongly written and constructed as "Forget Me Not," which will be seen at the Victoria theatre on Tuesday evening with Miss Rose Coghlan as Stephanie De Mohrvarik and her sister, a success of brilliant repartee, wit, satire, and epigram throughout its progress as to make it a wonder among dramas of the society kind. Nor is there here the least suggestion of a melodramatic force repressed and powerful, the whole part of Miss Coghlan is full. This fine actress whose methods are most admirable, and whose voice and stage appearance are superb appears to be the very best advantage exquisitely gained. Every other member of the cast does faithful service, and the costumes of the ladies are most beautiful specimens of the dressmaker's art rarely seen outside of a New York production.

Resignation Of Bishop Grigge

Retires From the Rectorship of the Reformed Episcopal Church.

He Was the First Protestant Clergyman to Arrive in Victoria.

Yesterday Rt. Rev. Bishop Grigge retired from the rectorship of the Reformed Episcopal Church, which he organized in this city just 25 years ago. The indomitable old age compelled the veteran divine to tender his resignation, which was received with the greatest regret by the congregation which he has ministered to for so many years, and the members of which esteemed him so highly. A committee has been appointed to draw up a resolution, to be suitably engrossed, signed by all the members, and presented to the Bishop, who will recount his many services to the church, and his merits. Bishop Grigge will continue his Episcopal functions, his jurisdiction in this regard extending as far south as San Francisco.

The vacant rectorship has been tendered to Rev. H. J. Woods, who is at present in the city, and occupying the pulpit of the church. Mr. Woods was educated at Durham and for 11 years was rector of the Reformed Episcopal church at St. George, Bermuda, and for the past three years of Holy Trinity church, Chicago. Negotiations between Rev. Mr. Woods and the congregation are now pending.

Rt. Rev. Edward Grigge was the first Protestant clergyman to land in Victoria, arriving here just 47 years ago next month. At that time the only clergymen in Victoria were Bishop Demers and two priests of the Roman Catholic church. He is the son of John Grigge, of Devonshire, England, in which county he was born in 1818, and graduated from St. Peter's college, Cambridge, in 1848. London was selected as the pioneer field of his pastoral duties, on which he entered in the district church of Westminster. In 1855 he took passage on the ship Marquis of Bute, for Victoria, among his fellow passengers being Capt. James McIntyre, who lost his life in the wreck of the collier Bristol a few weeks ago; Capt. and Mrs. Mouatt, and Mr. and Mrs. Flett. A stop was made at the Sandwich Islands for 17 days, and on May 15, Mr. Grigge preached the first English service in the city of Victoria, after a trip of six months and 17 days, he found the district church in process of construction on the site of the present Olmsted Church cathedral, and until that time the only services were conducted in the old fort. Bishop Grigge arrived in 1850, and the duties of Bishop Grigge were lightened. Together the two labored until 1874, when circumstances arose which led to the present division of the Reformed Episcopal church, under Bishop Grigge. The first services were held in the Pandora Avenue Presbyterian church, which was at that time vacant, but two years later the present edifice was consecrated to divine worship. From that time the congregation has steadily grown in number and influence.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE.

Deputation From Board of Trade Lay
Railway Proposal Before the Government.

A delegation from the Board of Trade waited upon the government yesterday morning to confer with them on the proposed railway to Alberni via the Cowichan valley. A very satisfactory meeting was held, the members of the cabinet expressing their desire to meet with the wishes of the board. The result of the conference will be laid before the Board of Trade at the regular meeting this afternoon.

PASSION MUSIC.

"The Way of the Cross" to Be Rendered
by Choir of St. John's Church.

For some time past the choir of St. John's, assisted by a good many well known lady and gentlemen vocalists, have been practicing "The Way of the Cross," a service of song on Wednesday next. The service will commence at 8:15 o'clock and a collection will be made on behalf of the choir, who are desirous of procuring new choir stalls. The solo parts will be taken by: Mrs. G. Hicks, Miss Laura Loewen, Mr. A. T. Goward and Mr. H. Kent.

The music, although necessarily of a solemn character, was rendered with impressive, and the final practice, which was held last night, gave promise of a very efficient rendering of this beautiful work, which impresses the listener with the tenderness of its expression. Mr. Longfield will preside at the organ.

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband, but if she is weak and nervous, and her husband is a Pils, she cannot be, for they make her "feel like a different person," so they all say, and their husbands say so too!

"Riches take unto themselves wings and fly away," said a board school teacher. "When kind and loving are meant, they are the smart boy at the altar of the class said: 'They must be ostriches.'"

Paine's Celery Compound

The Marvellous Spring Medicine
Rescues the Suffering Man.

Mr. Forsythe Says: "I Am Pleased to Recommend Paine's Celery Compound; I Believe It is the Best Medicine in the World."

Paine's Celery Compound surely and truly makes people well. It is the one true medicine recognized and prescribed by eminent physicians for all diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system. As a spring medicine for the banishment of blood diseases, dyspepsia, kidney disease, liver complaint and rheumatism, it is unequalled in the world.

Mr. A. Forsythe, Manchester, Ont., says: "For two years I was in a low condition of health, suffering from nervous, fainting spells, pain in the head, stomach troubles and loss of appetite. I was under the care of two doctors, but received no benefit from their treatment. I was then advised by a neighbor to use your wonderful medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. The use of this marvellous preparation soon produced the very best results. I am now in perfect health, my health is improved in every respect. I am stronger, sleep better, and my appetite is good and natural. I am pleased to recommend Paine's Celery Compound to all sick people, as I believe it is the best medicine in the world."

WESTERN ATHLETIC CLUB.

Meeting of the New Athletic Club-Report of Ball Committee.

The Victoria West Athletic club held a very successful meeting in their new hall last night. It was decided to admit boys under 16 to membership and to allow them to use the club rooms from 1 to 6 o'clock p.m. daily, except Sunday. The fees for junior members were fixed at $1 initiation, and 25 cents monthly. The resignation of E. W. Patton, as secretary, was accepted with much regret, and G. Okell was elected to succeed him.

The ball committee presented their report, which was most satisfactory, showing a cash balance of $125.

The following committee, with W. Dickinson as manager, was appointed to have charge of the ball: T. O. Kell, T. Jenkins, J. McDonald and G. F. Hutchinson.

THE KING'S OATH.

Unique Set of Petitions Presented to Parliament.

The London Daily Mail of February 26 has the following in regard to petitions against altering the King's oath. In the list of petitions Nova Scotia and British Columbia are given separately from Canada, as if they were different colonies:

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, who frequently in times past discharged with conspicuous ability duty in the House of Commons, yesterday led the chamber for Mr. Balfour, and answered for the under-secretary for foreign affairs (Viscount Cranborne), both disabled by the malady of the season.

The day's proceedings opened with the presentation of a round of petitions unexampled in the annals of parliament. The entire British Empire came to the House in this constitutional form to declare in favor of the King's declaration, which must not be tampered with.

To Mr. J. W. Mellor, K. C. M. P., had been entrusted the work of presenting these petitions, which were piled upon the floor near the Mace, and required two stalwart janitors for their removal. They were organized by the Church Association, and are signed, to the extent of over half a million signatures, by the King's subjects in Great Britain, the colonies and British possessions; also by British residents in foreign countries; France, Germany and Austria-Hungary. England alone contributed 254,047 signatures. Scotland 51,196, Wales 8,670, and Ireland 16,490.

Among "Greater Britain" are the following:

Melbourne	98,265
New South Wales	15,573
Freemantle	5,468
Zealand	4,500
Hobart	1,942
Canada (about)	800
British Columbia	5,000
Nova Scotia	5,246
St. John's	6,882
South Africa	3,526
West Africa (over)	2,000

India contributed from almost every station.

The most interesting petition came from Zululand, which was written in the native language and translated, in accordance with the rules of the House, before being presented to parliament.

With regard to the third clause of the oath, the disestablishment of the church in Ireland in 1850 makes the use of the former language impossible, and it is probable, states the Press Association, that the King in Council will revert to the simpler form of the clause which was employed at the coronation of William and Mary, who were thus interrogated: "Will you, to the utmost of your power, maintain the laws of God, the true profession of the Gospel, and the Protestant reformed religion established by law; and you will preserve unto the bishops and clergy of this realm, and to the churches committed to their charge, all such rights and privileges as by law do or shall appertain to them?"

It is also under the consideration of the privy council to alter the clause dealing with the King's title, so as to include His Majesty's new one of "Emperor of India and Sovereign of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas."

OBJECTIONS TO FIGHT.

Some Strange Court-Martials in France Recently.

Two cases of conscientious objection to military service have come before the Besancon court-martial within a few weeks. The first case was that of a private in the infantry, named Deloit, who, notwithstanding threats and entreaties, refused to accept the cross which was converted to his anti-militarist belief by an artilleryman named Grasselin, whose case was tried before a court presided over by a colonel. Grasselin was born at Giromagny, near Belfort, and is a farm laborer. Four days after his joining the colors his captain ordered him to open the breach of a gun. He refused, and said he could not. The military regulations on discipline were read out to him. The day after the order to open the breach was renewed, but to no effect. Every morning for five days running, lieutenant, captain, major and colonel—urged, entreated, threatened, read over the military regulations—all in vain. "Why did you not this, asked the president. "Jesus Christ said, 'Thou shalt not kill.' Love thy neighbor. I do not want to injure my neighbor."

The President—"You injure no one by opening the breach of a gun."

Defendant—"But I would have been next asked to shoulder a rifle. A rifle is made to kill, just as a ploughshare is to turn the soil."

President—"It was no business of yours to argue about orders."

Defendant—"Jesus Christ is above my officers."

President—"Christ does not order you to disobey the law of your country."

The President then asked Grasselin what he would do if someone attacked him.

"I would not defend myself."

"Why?"

"Because I will not kill."

"What would you do?"

"I would run away." (Laughter.)

"Will you submit to the law?"

"Not to kill. Give me something else to do."

The President—"Your conscience ought to tell you to obey the law as all other Frenchmen do."

A major who addressed the court as acting public prosecutor suggested that Grasselin was a little cracked. The doctors, however, pronounced him to be quite sound, and that he had merely "drawn exaggerated deductions from the principles of the Christian doctrine."

Counsel for the defence said Grasselin was brought up by a brutal father, and by a mother embittered by misfortune. He had read Tolstoi, Victor Hugo, Guy de Maupassant, and Renan, and all these writers condemned war. He had further been influenced by the teachings of the Bible.

The President before adjourning asked Grasselin for the last time whether he would do his duty. After a minute's reflection, defendant, gathering up his courage, said that it was impossible. He would do anything, but not kill. Sentence of two years' imprisonment was passed.

Ping-pong is a deadly anti-vaccinator. The number of people who can't play ping-pong because they have vaccinated is not nearly so large as the number of people who can't be vaccinated because they play ping-pong.

Teacher—Now, Master Kirby, you should be more correct in your composition. You say, 'I love school.' Now school cannot be loved. Can you use a more correct expression?

Master Kirby—"I hate school."

From the firewardens, reporting that the heavy extra demands upon the city treasury by the new recommendations for increases in the salaries of any on the call roll, and that though the line of $250 per month was not to be exceeded, it was thought well to retain a fair sized penalty to be imposed at times. (3) That Mr. Theodore Cooper be employed to prepare working plans and specifications of a new superstructure in accordance with the first proposal contained in his letter to the city engineer.

This report was laid on the table pending certain contracts to be executed from the Public Works Department at Ottawa.

Further discussion then took place upon the wood-sawing-on-the-streets by-law, and a variety of amendments were proposed, and the area contained by Pembroke and Cook streets, and thence around by the water front, but eventually the matter was laid over until Monday night's meeting.

The council then adjourned at 10:10.

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband, but if she is weak and nervous, and her husband is a Pils, she cannot be, for they make her "feel like a different person," so they all say, and their husbands say so too!

WAR OFFICE REFORM.

Important Changes in the Headquarters Staff.

Some very important changes are shortly to be of great importance in the composition and personnel of Lord Roberts staff in Pall Mall, says the London Daily Mail.

An old office is to re-appear under a new title in the appointment of an inspector-general of royal artillery. It is probable that Major-General Sir H. G. Marshall, who is undoubtedly one of the finest practical artillerymen in the world, will occupy the new post.

The quartermaster-general's department is also to be re-organized. There are now four assistant quartermaster-generals, who are deputies to Sir C. M. Clarke. In the future, however, his chief assistant will be a representative with a new staff officer—the deputy quartermaster-general.

Another reorganization will take place in the cavalry grant. General H. F. Grant, C. B., has hitherto been responsible for the Imperial Yeomanry as well as the regular cavalry. The Home Force Imperial Yeomanry will now have their own representative in the person of Major-General Lord Chesham, inspector-general of Imperial Yeomanry.

The inspector-general of cavalry will on April 1 lose his assistant adjutant-general, the Earl of Errol, K. T., and a new post—the staff captain for cavalry at headquarters—will take the place of the abolished appointment.

The Earl of Errol will leave the war office for an army corps appointment.

His pay at headquarters staff is now fixed at the following rates, which, except for field and traveling allowances, will be as follows:

Per annum.
Director-general of mobilization	£2,100
Inspector-general of mobilization	1,500
Inspector-general of cavalry	1,500
Inspector-general of royal artillery	1,500
Deputy quartermaster-general	1,000
Deputy director-general of Ordnance	1,000
Assistant adjutant-general	1,000

No steps have been taken so far in the direction of reform in the position of Army Service Corps officers.

Through their having to retire at colonel's rank, the service of many valuable Army Service Corps officers are prematurely lost to the state, and there is a very urgent necessity for reform in this direction.

D'Anher—"This is the landscape I wanted you to suggest."

Critick—"H'm! Rather impressionistic. Why not call it 'Home?'"

D'Anher—"Home?"

Critick—"Because there's no place like it."

Mr. friend, look here! you know how weak and nervous your wife is, and you know that Carter's Iron Pills will relieve her, and that it will not be fair about it and buy her a box?

They have got the Kubelek fever very badly in the States and the New York Journal, always on the front on occasions of national agitation, is spurring no pains in its administration to its suffering readers. In the latest number of that famous publication to hand, the famous violinist is said to be playing at least he is made to say by the editor for a "dry love tune."

The thing is no so artistically done, however, as we are accustomed to expect from the Journal. "It will make no difference to me whether my love is repudiated or unrequited," declared Kubelek, at the opening of the interview. "She must be a girl who would despise me, who would not love me sincerely, devotedly, intensely, above everything else on earth," was his closing sentence. This is hardly consistent.

A Throat and Lung Treatment

That Has Been Largely Imitated but Never successfully Imitated is Dr.
Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

There is no guesswork about the virtue of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It has been before the people too long, and withstood too many a battle brunt from aspiring rivals, to be considered an experiment of unknown value.

Year by year, as the fall and winter season come and go, the sale of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine increases steadily and certainly. It has proven its remarkable value, won its laurels, and continues to lead the van as the most popular and most largely used cough and cold medicine of this country.

Children especially are fond of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, because it is so sweet and pleasant to the taste, and quickly relieves and cures them when gasping for breath with choked-up air passages, or tearing the linings of the throat and bronchial tubes with a severe and painful cough.

Bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, sore throat, severe chest colds and painful coughs are relieved and cured promptly and thoroughly by this famous preparation. It also frees the asthma sufferer from the dreadful paroxysms which cause him such keenest and most excruciating cases, as has been proven in a hundred cases.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine aids expectoration, clears the throat and air passages, soothes and heals the inflamed linings of the bronchial tubes, and cures coughs of every description. But it is far more than a mere cough cure, for its action is far-reaching and it thoroughly removes the cold as well.

You cannot compare Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine with any remedy you ever used. It is unique as a remedy for throat and lung troubles.

There are other preparations of linseed and turpentine, but in imitation of Dr. Chase's, and it is therefore important that you be careful when buying. 25c. a bottle; family size, three times as much, 60c. At all dealers, or D.Manson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

POINT ELLICE BRIDGE.

To the Editor,
Sir,—I wish to draw your attention to the fact that the majority of candidates at the municipal elections endorsed the idea that a stone bridge should be erected at Point Ellice. I think the Council before they finally decide what kind of a structure shall be erected, The Times states that the aldermen thoroughly thrashed out the subject. I for one do not consider that in such an important matter they should take upon themselves the duty of giving it a final decision without the special voice of the electorate. Let the opinions of the best experts on the subject be obtained, and I should judge that contractors are the best judges in a matter of this kind. I do not know what the cost is going to be, whether a stone bridge will cost only $150,000 or $250,000, but there certainly are contractors in the city qualified to tender on such a contract and express an opinion as to what such a structure would cost.
